

‘A Story Of Healing’

'A Story Of Healing'

I was learning,
Knitting and pearling,
A blanket growing,
Showing.
One stitch at a time.

I was counting,
Counting stitches,
The needles clicking,
Quietly ticking,
One stitch at a time.

I was threading
Weaving a story,
I was telling
A story of healing,
One stitch at a time.

It's a patchwork
Of ups and downs
Recovering, improving,
Pushing, rushing,
Slowing down.
It's the loneliness
That I held on to.
It's the loneliness
That I held on to.

One stitch at a time.

I was threading
Weaving a story,
I was telling
A story of healing,
One stitch at a time.
